

What would you like to emphasize in your profile?

(include company slogans, taglines, amenities, specialties, items carried, history of business or building)

What makes your business different from the competition?What do your customers and visitors like most about your business or community?*Additional Comments

Please note: Customers or their advertising agency may write their own profile (please keep in the third person). However, CMP reserves the right to edit these stories for consistency of style and space requirements. If you supply your own story, you must still complete the Business Information Sheet and include any brochures or related literature, as we need current information for our files. Please allow 30 days for your proof to be completed and mailed to you or posted on our web site for your review and approval.

If your web page should include different information from your advertorial please comment on the changes or additions. You will be able to make adjustments / additions on many items yourself through your web browser.

◆ Finally, would your business be interested in offering a special promotion or discount coupon to our readers in the appendix? There would be no extra charge for this, and it would give your business additional exposure. If you are interested, please pass on the information to your sales representative.
